Case Work Release

I, Janine Burnham Ruth, am a student at the Homeopathy School International studying to be a certified homeopath. Case work is an essential component of the educational preparation of homeopaths. I am seeking your permission to submit your case to the school as part of my preparation as a homeopath.

As a student, I am required to submit a number of case reports that I have personally taken and analyzed throughout the program. The case reports are then reviewed by a supervisor who provides feedback on all aspects of my understanding of the homeopathic process.

No identifying information is submitted with any cases. All cases are identified by numbers or letters to protect confidentiality. Names are never submitted with written case reports.

Please indicate by checking the boxes and initialing below the level of permission you are granting regarding your case.

I, _____, grant permission for the following:

- ☐ ____ My case and follow-ups may be shared only with school clinical supervisors.
- ☐ ____ My case and subsequent follow-ups may be shared with supervisors and other students for teaching purposes within the Homeopathy School International's curriculum.
- ☐ ____ I am willing to participate in a videotaped intake with the camera focused on the student homeopath. This video may be shared only with clinical supervisors.
- ☐ Comments _____

- ☐ ____ I, the undersigned, agree to the above level of permission for my child's case as indicated by the checked boxes and my initials.
